JAVIER AND LINDSAY CLAVERE

Javier and his wife Lindsay Clavere began playing as a piano duo team in 1996. In honor of their wedding, composer Seymour Bernstein wrote "Rhapsody on Two Names - Javier and Lindsay," and the Argentinean composer Duilio Grasso wrote "Candombe for two Pianos." Both pieces were premiered at their piano duo debut in the Assembly Hall in Salt Lake City in 1997. They have performed extensively as a duo piano team across North and South America. Their repertoire includes a wide range of music from Latin American, to modern American music by such composers as Copland, Gershwin, etc... They have performed the complete works for piano 4-hands and two pianos for hands by Mozart, Ravel, Rachmaninoff, Debussy, and Schubert.
